Ethics of Public Consultation

1. The Panel invited Natasha Plummer to discuss the Panel's draft advice on ethics of public consultation. The Panel received an update on current developments in respect of MOPAC's public engagement activity, and highlighted key aspects of their report for consideration by MOPAC. The next steps for finalising the report were agreed. The draft has been sent to the Deputy Mayor for Policing and Crime prior to publication in order to feed into current strategic planning.

Misconduct Report

2. The Panel reviewed the draft chapters of their report and agreed the next steps. It aimed to complete the report following the September meeting when recommendations would be discussed with representatives from the Professional Standards team in MPS.

The Panel's next meeting will be on 14 September 2020.
