Police and Crime Plan Project

1. Prof Gloria Laycock (University College London) and Prof Ian Loader (University of Oxford) introduced their views on what they consider as moral assumptions, value commitments and ethical principles underlying differing conceptions of policing purpose and how they might serve to highlight particularly important policing priorities.
2. The Panel reflected on and discussed the issues that were raised.
3. The Panel wish to express their appreciation to the two speakers for supporting the project by sharing their expertise.

The Panel's next meeting will be on 8 February 2021.
